Please read these Terms and Conditions carefully before enrolment at Express English College (EEC).

General

1. The college services (Courses and accommodation) are subject to availability.
2. We have the right to cancel, delay or change a course or a leisure activity in case of a low demand or any other circumstances that require such action.
3. Bookings for under 18 students require a signed parental consent letter to be sent to the college before the course start date, and students may study in adult groups.
4. Critical health information should be indicated on the application form. This will help prepare other students, your host or the members of staff in case of an emergency. EEC may refuse to accept a student if it feels it cannot meet the needs of the student on medical grounds.
5. EEC may refuse to accept a student based on the academic needs of the student, if it feels those needs cannot be met. For example, the student is an absolute beginner, or their level is higher than the current levels of classes running in the school.
6. EEC may refuse to accept a student, without reservation, if there is a suspicion or a risk that the student will not comply with the requirements of their visa status or pose a risk to the integrity of the UK Border.
7. EEC may refuse an application, without reservation, if there is a suspicion that documents presented to support a visa application are not valid or appropriate.
8. EEC requires all financially sponsored students to send proof of sponsorship before they can be accepted on a course of study.
9. Health and Travel insurances should be applied for, before coming to the UK, and EEC is not liable for any payments of items or services that should be covered by insurance. Such cases include; cancellation and curtailment, course fees, medical expenses, personal belongings cover, money, personal liability and injuries.
10. If a student is affected by a long-term illness they should immediately apply for a medical certificate and present it to the college. This would only allow for the course to be postponed but not refunded.

11. The fees paid cannot be transferred to any other student and is only applicable to the student who applied. The accepted payable currency is GBP (£). Payment in other currencies should be the exact payable amount in GBP (£) on the day of receiving the payment.
12. Holidays can be taken at any time, exclusive to a student on full-time or intensive programmes. This is subject to student completion of the course within the period of their visa where applicable. However, a student is required to give a two weeks' notice for authorisation of holiday.
13. A one-week holiday for a six-week period of study is permitted for a full-time student, but could be taken consecutively on courses lasting 12 weeks or more. These holidays cannot be given on individual days and can only be taken in week blocks (Monday – Friday).
14. The course type cannot be changed, for example, from full-time to part time or to 1-1 lessons.
15. You may postpone the start of your course for up to six months, if a 14 days' notice before the start date is given. After the booking is confirmed, EEC has the right to charge £50 for administration costs each time course details are changed.
16. Student are responsible for their own visa. Once full booking and tuition fees are received, visa documentation will be sent by email.

Payment and Fees

1. To book a full-time course, a student is required to pay a deposit of £150 to EEC.
2. The student should clear the balance within 21 days before the course starts.
3. For those who book a course in less than 21 days before the course starts, they are required to pay the fees in full.
4. For EEA citizens, bookings for English language courses are accepted on payment of a non-refundable £150 deposit or the full programme fee plus the registration fee of £50.
5. It is important for visa students to pay full fees to allow processing and confirmation of the application.
6. The fees cover the placement test, tuition, use of school resources and facilities, end of course certificate, course report and some social programmes activities.

7. The course fees do not include course books and exam fees.
8. A charge will be applied on issuing a certificate or report, if requested two months after the course end date.

Terms and conditions for Teaching

1. Students must study in all their lessons at the times outlined in their timetable..
2. Students should not leave the class during lessons or disrupt the teaching of the class for any reason.
3. EEC expects all students to be on time for classes. Students arriving more than 5 minutes late for a lesson will be marked as 'late' on the class register.
4. Students who arrive 15 minutes late to any class without notifying EEC in advance will not be allowed to join the class.
5. Any student who is 10 minutes late after the break will not be permitted to enter the class and will be marked as absent on the class attendance list.
6. Students who are late on a regular basis will receive a verbal warning followed by a written warning. Agents or Sponsors will also be notified.
